Spring Suits for Madame of Tweed or Tricotine

—as the Smart Parisienne is now wearing them

Tricotine Suits at 49.50
Tweed Suits at 35.00

The suits of tricotine are in plain tailored or effectively embroidered models—the coats displaying many variations of the mode—the skirts cut on liberal lines to permit easy walking.

The suits of tweed are semi-fitted, to be worn with or without a belt, with the three-button closing that Fashion favors. In the most wanted colors. Fourth Floor

We Are Featuring for Saturday a Wonderful Assortment of

Coats for Baby Boys

—at remarkably low prices

At $6.95—Sturdy Belted Models of flannel or cloth that are double breasted and button high.

At $10.95—there are three models—the regulation navy blue serge, a cadet blue domestic tweed, or a blue shepherd check that is half belted in back.

At $12.95—In cadet blue or cinnamon brown domestic tweed, or a red flannel sailor collared model with white braid trimming.

Sizes 1 to 4 years
